Be it surreal heels or vintage treasures, nothing's off-limits in this New Yorker's whimsical wardrobe.

ROSABELLA BROWN

AGE 15

WHAT SHE'S WEARING "A blue military jacket by Stretsis over a Saint James striped tee, a Built by Wendy tiered miniskirt, a hot pink Topshop bag, and Superga sneakers. I'm obsessed with anything nautical—thanks to Gossip Girl, my friends and I all desperately want to be preppy!"

MOTHER'S LITTLE HELPER "I get a lot of style inspiration from my mom [fashion designer Lucy Barnes]. When she was younger, she used to be quite the rebel. She has all these amazing old pictures of herself wearing goth makeup and silk slips. I work a lot of vintage slips myself now. In fact, most of my vintage pieces come from my mom!"

SPELLBOUND "I had an obsession with fairies when I was younger, and I still love anything ethereal and fairytale-inspired—the teacup-themed Miu Miu heels from a few seasons ago were my favorite! I wrote a paper on the historical significance of Little Red Riding Hood for my World History class last semester. I also love the story of Rapunzel, probably because I'm into the look of superlong hair. I haven't cut mine in a year and a half!" □
